About Three H

Three H is a leading manufacturer of commercial furniture solutions designed to meet the evolving needs of today's workplaces. With over 50 years of experience, we specialize in modular, scalable systems that support everything from individual focus work to collaborative environments.

Our design approach is rooted in functionality, adaptability, and human-centered thinking, offering high-performance furniture that delivers long-term value. Recognized for operational excellence, sustainable practices, and a strong service ethic, Three H helps government, education, and commercial organizations create efficient, future-ready workspaces that inspire productivity and support diverse user needs. And over 80% of major components, like steel, aluminum, glass, fabrics and laminates, are sourced within 500 miles of the factory.

Student-Facing Zones

Designed with Intent,
Built for Connection

At Three H, we believe that great design empowers students to thrive. Our student-facing zones, featuring adaptable solutions like Onsite, Hudson, and Lockers, are crafted to foster collaboration, comfort, and a sense of belonging. Inspired by the rhythm of campus life, these spaces invite curiosity, spark conversation, and support every student's journey toward growth and discovery.

Faculty & Admin Offices

Purposeful Spaces for Focus and Support

Faculty and administrative teams are the backbone of every campus. We design office environments that balance privacy with openness, professionalism with warmth. With versatile solutions like Reception, Premiere Select, and MOS+, these spaces support deep work, meaningful mentorship, and day-to-day operations, all while reflecting the values of care, clarity, and connection. Thoughtfully crafted, naturally inspired, and built to evolve with the needs of your campus community.

Collaboration & Meeting Spaces

Where Ideas Find Their Voice

Campuses thrive on conversation, between students, faculty, and staff. Three H's collaboration and meeting solutions, including Meeting are designed to support the flow of ideas in spaces that feel open, grounded, and connected. Whether it's a quick brainstorm or a formal discussion, these environments foster clarity, creativity, and shared purpose. With thoughtful details and adaptable layouts, they invite people to gather, listen, and build something meaningful together.

Support & Storage

Thoughtful Solutions That Stay Out of the Way

Campus spaces work best when they feel effortless. Three H's Archive collection offers a refined approach to storage, supporting the rhythm of student life with lockers, shelving, and cabinets that integrate seamlessly into learning environments.

From personal lockers tucked into corridors to open shelving in shared zones, Archive is designed to keep essentials close and clutter out of sight. With clean lines, durable finishes, and a quiet presence, it brings order to busy spaces, so students can focus, move, and connect without distraction.

Premiere Select

Designed for learning. Built for what's next.

Premiere Select brings elevated design and functional flexibility to the spaces where tomorrow's leaders are shaped. From faculty offices to student lounges, this collection blends modern aesthetics with durable performance, perfect for the dynamic demands of campus life. With scalable options and a wide range of finishes, Premiere Select supports both focused work and collaborative engagement, making it an ideal choice for higher education institutions looking to create inspiring, future-ready environments.

Hudson

Hudson by Three H

Think. Transform. Trailblaze.

Hudson is built for the rhythm of academic life: steady, evolving, and often under pressure. Designed for higher education environments that prioritize concentration and clarity, Hudson brings thoughtful simplicity to the foreground. Clean lines, layered surfaces, and integrated storage create an intentional workspace that supports deep work, one-on-one meetings, and casual moments of collaboration.

Ideal for faculty offices, advising spaces, and administrative areas, Hudson is architecture in furniture form, quiet, grounded, and never over-designed. It doesn't try to stand out; it helps the work stand up. Durable, refined, and easy to configure, Hudson is the understated foundation campuses can count on.

Endless Opportunities

Hudson brings a commanding architectural presence to any space, with versatile design options ranging from the most compact to the boldly expansive.

Onsite by Three H

Where Campus Conversations Happen

Onsite is designed for the everyday rhythm of higher education, tables that make collaboration effortless. Available in freestanding and wall-mounted options, the collection supports quick huddles, advising sessions, and group work without overwhelming a space.

Defined by clean geometry, Onsite provides a simple, durable foundation for faculty, students, and staff to meet, share ideas, and move work forward.

Unite and Delight

Wall-Mounted Table

Space-efficient and purposeful, the Onsite Wall-Mounted table anchors collaboration in even the most compact settings. Ideal for advising offices, student services, or quick one-on-one discussions, its streamlined design saves floor space while maintaining a composed, professional look.

Freestanding Table

The freestanding table is built for versatility, supporting group projects, informal meetings, or team huddles wherever they're needed on campus. Defined by crisp geometry it brings clarity and balance to academic environments. Moveable and approachable, it adapts to different settings while delivering a consistent design language.

Applique Wall

Slim, finished on all sides, the Applique Wall transforms open-plan spaces into fully functional meeting zones. It creates a natural hub for presentations, video calls, or group discussions, without the need for a dedicated conference room. With options to mix materials, including PET felt for added acoustic comfort, the Onsite Applique Wall blends technology, style, and spatial efficiency into one refined solution.

Kynde by Three H

Soft Forms. Strong Connections.

Kynde redefines the conference table with shapes and finishes that bring warmth and intention to every meeting space.
